PLEASE BRING THIS CATALOG TO THE SALE

ANNOUNCEMENT

We take great pleasure in extending to all lovers of Shorthorn cattle this invitation to attend this, our tenth public sale, on June 1, 1922. For twenty-two years we have been breeding Shorthorns at ELMHURST and never once during this time have we regretted being identified with this great industry. Values are not now as high as they have been in the past few years, but at present values the breeding of high class Shorthorn cattle is a profitable business, and in our opinion right now is the opportune time to lay in good foundation females.

We are listing at this time a string of young heifers mostly bred at ELMHURST and many of them by the grand young breeding bull, Bard's Emblem, that individually and in breeding surpass anything that we have yet offered the public and along with this choice lot of heifers we have listed a number of our mature and dependable breeding cows, carrying the service of Bard's Emblem, Maxwalton Major and Anoka Lavender. The equal of this grand lot of breeding cows is not often found in other than a dispersion sale.

The few bulls that are listed are strictly high class in every respect and should please the buyer who is looking for the best.

We feel that this offering taken as a whole is very much more attractive than any we have before sold, and trust that you will be well pleased with it on sale day.

With the sincere wish that you may find pleasure and profit in a visit to ELMHURST on June 1, I am,

Very truly yours,

C. A. BRANSON.

Other sales same week.

Bard's Emblem, the last bull calf got by the great Bard of Avondale, resembles his sire more closely than any of his former bull calves. For this reason and because he was out of one of the good cows of the breed, we have pinned our faith to him as our chief stock bull. His calves are most promising and we are now fully convinced that we made no mistake in his selection. He has never been highly fitted for show, but was Junior and Grand Champion bull at W. Va. State Fair in 1920.

As we are reducing our herd to a place where one bull is sufficient, and as we do not care to part with Bard's Emblem, the last calf by the great sire The Bard of Avondale, we have decided to list Maxwalton Major in this sale, and hope that he will be appreciated by some one who is in need of a high class sire. He is listed for absolutely no fault, but as above stated. His line of breeding is so well known by all Shorthorn admirers that we do not deem it necessary to comment on his pedigree, other than that he is a full brother to the following well known sires, Maxwalton Manor, Maxwalton Count and Maxwalton Marumot, and that he is out of the same dam as the famous show cow Maxwalton Mina 8th. As a calf Major was second at Ohio State Fair in 1917, in 1918 he was first as a yearling at Indiana State Fair and second in Ohio. As a two year old he was second at Ohio State fair. In 1921 he was second to the Grand Champion bull in a class of sixteen at the Shorthorn Congress, and in the fall of 1921 was Grand Champion bull at the West Virginia State Fair.
